

How to raise $500 plus in four weeks

It costs $1,250 to provide one night of respite care for a child at Very Special Kids Hospice. If a team of 30 raised $500 each, that's a total of 12 nights ($15,000) for Very Special Kids.

Week 1	Get the ball rolling and prove your commitment – donate to yourself If you're asking your friends, family, and connections to contribute to your fundraising efforts, donating to yourself first will prove your commitment to them, and demonstrate your dedication to the cause.	Raise $50
Week 2	Ask your family members to donate Ask four (or more) of your close family members to donate $50 each.	Raise $200
Week 3	Facebook is a powerful tool to communicate what you are doing and an easy gateway to raise funds. Update your supporters regularly and make sure to include your unique fundraising link and tag Very Special Kids. Below is a post example to get you started. I'm participating in the Very Special Kids 24 Hour Treadmill Challenge because I want to help children with life-threatening conditions who need 24 hour care. Help me, help them and give now! #vsktreadmill #veryspecialkids TIP: If the post doesn't work, try a group message	Raise $100
Week 4	Ask 10 of your extended family and friends to donate $30 each	Raise $300
